

It sure is hard to be humble when you're a swashbuckling, egocentric super-hero. But our gallant guy-in-green tries his best as he swaggers through The Somewhat True Tale of Robin Hood, a frantically funny, Monty Pythonesque retelling of the classic. This time around, the legendary legend, in his never-ending quest to aid the needy, encounters a lovely damsel-in-distress (oddly obsessed with skin conditions); an ever-scheming sheriff who would rather bowl a strike than hit a bulls eye; a gold-hoarding, bad-guy monarch wannabe; and a good-natured "Town's Guy" who manages to make his way into every scene, whether he belongs there or not. Combine them with an expandable band of spoon-wielding Merry Men whose collective IQs equal six, and you've got an irreverent jaunt through Sherwood Forest you won't soon forget! Sure would! Out of Robin's own mouth comes the correct term for DCS's production of The Somewhat True Tale of Robin Hood: "Yowza!" So, when asked if one wants to take a romp through the famed Sherwood Forest, there's only one response needed: Sure would!!

All are invited to come see this show that is an over the top comedy. The Somewhat True Tale of Robin Hood by Mary Lynn Dobson will showcase our incredibly talented students of the seventh and eighth grades. The show takes place on Friday evening at 7:00 p.m., March 27 at O.L. Smith School.
